Cricket Fest here

CARTAMA OVAL is hosting from today (Thursday) the biggest cricket event in its history.

This year there will be six teams taking part in the Costa del Sol Charity Cricket Fest.

Four will be coming from the UK, one from Holland, and, making the longest journey, will be Turf India CC all the way from New Delhi, India.

The three day event will have non-stop cricket from 10am until 6pm.

Admission is free, however organisers would appreciate a donation towards charity.

Encouraging signs for Malaga after winning last two games

MALAGA'S recent improvement continued with a well deserved four points in their last two matches.

On Tuesday they had a comfortable 2-0 win against newly promoted Andalusian rivals UD Almeria.

That followed a well earned point in a scoreless draw with Real Sociedad at Anoeta.

The Basques entered the game on the back of a disappointing 2-0

Champions League home defeat to Shakhtar Donetsk yet made the most of the early running, with Mikel Gonzalez sealing his shot fly narrowly wide, and they did have the ball in the net on 19 minutes.

However, Inigo Martinez was adjudged to have handled Diego Maradona-style and was fortunate to escape with just a yellow card for his blatant indiscretion.

The Costa del Sol side almost took the lead on the half-hour mark when Francisco Portillo forced Claudio Bravo to superbly tip his powerful shot from the edge of the box over the bar, while Sergio Sanchez's heading from the resulting corner almost found the far corner.

Five minutes later Mounir El Hamdaoui was just off target as Malaga finished the half the stronger of the two teams, yet it was La Real who came out with more purpose after the break.

Imanol Agirretxe latched onto Xavi Prieto's header in the 55th minute but fired wide, and Jose Angel also went close with a free-kick. Willy Caballero then had to be on hand to turn Carlos Vela's effort round a post, although the Mexican was flagged offside.

Two quick chances immediately followed for the visitors, Santa Cruz again fluffing his lines and Fernando Tissoxe somehow contributing to miss with the goal at his mercy.

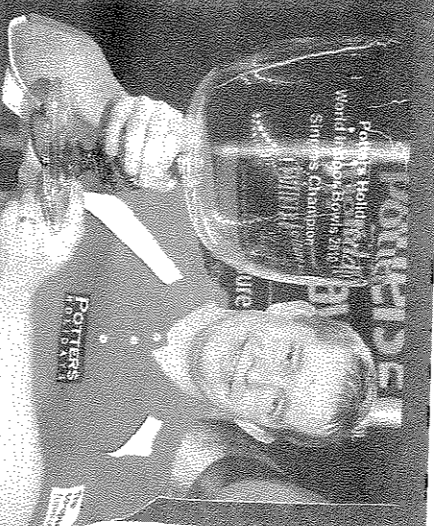

Nonetheless, neither team possessed the cutting edge needed to take all three points and had to settle for a share of the spoils.

Greg Harlow brings group to Miraflores

FORMER World Champion Greg Harlow is bringing a group of bowlers to Miraflores Bowls Club on Tuesday.

The group is travelling to Malaga as part of a No Fly Cruising holiday organised by the bowls centre of Porters Leisure from Norfolk. The Bahmoral cruise ship will be docking in Malaga for one day only to enable the bowls match against Miraflores to take place before continuing to travel the Mediterranean, where it will stop for two other bowls matches in Menorca and Murcia.

Spectators are welcome to attend and watch one of the world's top bowlers in action. Refreshments and food will be available.
